History of Amendments to the Elections Regulations Manual
Article I: Purpose

Section I – Purpose of the Election Regulation Manual (ERM)

A. The purpose of the Elections Regulation Manual (ERM) is to establish rules intended to provide all San José State University (SJSU) students with an equal opportunity to present their views and qualifications to the SJSU student body for election to A.S. office.

B. The ERM applies to each election as outlined in Article III, Section 1.

C. The ERM provisions apply to all SJSU students.

D. All activities not specifically addressed in the ERM shall be governed by the A.S. Bylaws and California statutes and regulations pertaining to student activities including the SJSU Student Conduct Code, Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations Section 41301, and other relevant University policies and procedures.

E. The ERM may not be amended or revised after advertising has begun for an election cycle.

F. Faculty, staff, and administration participation in student elections shall conform to Chancellor’s Office regulations and this ERM.

Section II - Purpose of the A.S. Students’ Election Commission

A. The purpose of the Students’ Election Commission (SEC) is to ensure compliance with this Elections Regulation Manual (ERM).

B. Details about the SEC, its composition, and duties can be found in the A.S. Bylaws, Article IV, Section IX.

Article II: Candidates

Section I - Candidate Eligibility

A. A candidate is a student who is eligible and running for an elected A.S. office or submitting an initiative or referendum to the ballot. For the purpose of this document, referenda and initiatives shall be referred to as candidates.
B. SJSU Student Involvement and the Office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development will conduct eligibility checks after the application deadline determined by the SEC and advertised on the Elections’ Calendar.

C. Each individual candidate seeking to become or remain an Officer or Director must be in good standing with the University and not be on probation of any kind.

D. Candidates must comply with the academic requirements established by the Trustees of the California State University and San José State University. (See Trustees Academic Qualifications for Student Officers and University Policy S05-4, Academic Qualifications for Student Office Holders).

E. No student shall hold more than one Associated Students office, excluding committee memberships, during the tenure of office.

F. Executive officers of the A.S. Board of Directors shall have attended San José State University at least two (2) of the preceding three (3) semesters before the first day of the fall semester following elections.

G. All officers shall maintain at least six (6) units of credit at the time of election and during the entire tenure of office.

H. No student shall hold any one position on the A.S. Board of Directors for more than two academic years and no student shall serve in any A.S. office, exclusive of A.S. committees and boards, for more than three academic years.

I. Applicants who fail to meet eligibility guidelines must be notified by the SEC Advisor within five (5) days after the close of the approved application period. An ineligible applicant will be deemed to have withdrawn from the Election and his/her name will not appear on the election ballot.

Section II - Candidate Requirements

A. Attend a mandatory Candidate Orientation/ Ethics Session.

B. Pick up and sign for a Candidate Information Packet.
C. Submit a completed application, waiver form, and other required forms found in the Candidate Information Packet by the deadline.

D. Submit all Voter Information Guide content by the deadline.

E. Submit a signed Candidate Expense Report and required receipts.

F. Participate in the Candidate Debates and two (2) additional Election Events.

G. Follow all campaigning regulations as outlined in the ERM.

H. Fully understand and agree to the expectations and commitments of their role if elected, including but not limited to Board attendance policy, maintaining office, carrying out position duties, participation in mandatory meetings, retreats and trainings throughout the year, etc.

Section III - Candidate Responsibilities

A. Respond to emails from the SEC in a timely manner.

B. Read and follow the Elections’ Calendar.

C. Follow the grievance process within its intended purpose.

D. Encourage students to vote in elections.

E. Be familiar with each of the regulations laid out in the A.S. Bylaws and ERM, Student Conduct Code, and California Education Code regarding student government elections and ensure that each person and/or organization involved in his/her campaign is fully informed about them, particularly all campaign party workers.

Section IV - Candidate Withdrawal

A. A candidate (or a representative from an initiative/ referendum) may withdraw from an election at any time by informing the SEC in writing. The SEC shall remove the candidate from the ballot only after requested. The SEC shall not count votes cast for a withdrawn candidate under any circumstances.
B. If an uncontested candidate for an A.S. office withdraws after the filing deadline passes, no further applications for election to that office can be accepted, and the position shall be filled in accordance with the A.S. Bylaws (Article VI, Section III).

Article III: Election Procedures

Section I - Type of Elections

A. General election - is a regular yearly election of officers to A.S. Board of Directors, as well as referenda and initiatives placed on the ballot.

B. Run-off Election - is an election that is a result of a tie-vote during a general or special election. If a tie-vote also occurs in a runoff election, the A.S. Board of Directors shall appoint one of the two runoff candidates by a two-thirds majority.

C. Special Election - is an election held outside of a regularly scheduled general election.

Section II - Time of Elections

A. The SEC, in collaboration with A.S. Marketing & Events department shall create the Election Calendar/ Timeline within one month of the SEC Election Officers assuming responsibilities.

B. The Election Calendar/Timeline shall be approved by a simple majority of the A.S. Board of Directors no later than the last Board meeting of the fall semester.

Section III - Application Process

A. A student may have his/her name placed on the ballot for an A.S. office by filling out an application for that office by the deadline determined by the approved Election Calendar/ Timeline.

B. A student’s name shall appear on the online ballot for only one office in a single election.

C. No candidate shall be required to pay filing fees or collect signatures to run for office. Potential candidates may, however, be asked to share personal information with the SEC and its advisor on the application, which shall be used solely for the purpose of communicating with the potential candidate, campus media and verifying eligibility. A candidate may choose to decline communicating with the media by indicating so in the candidate application.

D. The SEC will make candidate applications available online through the A.S. website, on the Student Government Students’ Election Commission webpage, and at every A.S. Information Session.

E. Candidates for Associated Students Offices shall file separately.

F. Candidate applications must be received by the deadline posted on the Elections Calendar/ Timeline. The SEC will determine the date, time, and location for applications to be submitted.

Section IV – Candidate Events

A. A.S. Information Sessions: Prior to each election, the SEC shall hold a minimum of three (3) A.S. Information Sessions on different days of the week and at different times (a Monday/Wednesday meeting and a Tuesday/Thursday meeting, one in the morning and one in the evening).

1. Potential candidates are not required to attend these information sessions although it is highly recommended.

2. Topics of this meeting include but are not limited to:
   i. What A.S. is and does
   ii. Responsibilities and duties of Board members
   iii. Accomplishments of past Boards
   iv. Structure of A.S. and the Board of Directors
   v. Relationship between A.S., the students and the University

B. Candidate Orientation and Ethics Meetings: Prior to each election, the SEC shall hold a minimum of four (4) Candidate Orientation and Ethics meetings on different days of the week and at different times (a Monday/Wednesday meeting and a Tuesday/Thursday meeting, one in the morning and one in the evening).

1. Each person interested in running for an A.S. office, including incumbents seeking re-election and those submitting an initiative or referenda, must attend a Candidate Orientation and Ethics Meeting and be present for the entire meeting. Topics for this meeting should include, but are not limited to:

i. candidate eligibility
ii. functions, responsibilities, time commitments
iii. rules, regulations and ethics of elections and campaigning.

2. Candidates who cannot attend the scheduled meeting times may make arrangements with the SEC.

3. Students submitting an initiative or referenda for the ballot are responsible for scheduling and attending a one-on-one meeting with the Chief Elections Officer or representative.

4. Meeting Structure: The meeting should be dedicated to orienting the candidates on the following topics including, but not limited to:
   i. Advocacy, service, and stewardship
   ii. What A.S. is and does
   iii. A.S. History
   iv. Structure of A.S. and the Board of Directors
   v. The importance of ethical decision making
   vi. Campaign rules and regulations
   vii. Approved Elections’ Calendar/ Timeline viii. Grievance process
   ix. Campaign violations

5. Candidates will not be allowed to campaign until they attend the mandatory meeting and all other requirements are met. No campaigning of any kind will be permitted prior to the posting of eligibility and the onset of the official campaign period as approved by the SEC and advertised on Elections’ Calendar.

Section V - Election Events

A. The SEC Events Officer, with the approval of the SEC and in collaboration with the A.S. Marketing & Events department shall host a minimum of four (4) candidate events, including but not limited to the following:

1. Elections/ Campaign Kick Off
2. Meet the Candidates/ Interactive Events
3. Open Forum
4. Candidate Debates
5. Voting Party
6. Election Results

B. The SEC must hold a Candidate Debate event available for the SJSU public to attend.

C. All candidates are required to participate in the Candidate Debates, along with two (2) additional Election Events.

1. Candidates who cannot participate must submit in writing the reason for the absence at least five days in advance, which must be excused by the SEC. Candidates must provide suitable evidence of their absence.

D. The SEC shall facilitate the events and grant each candidate equal time and opportunity to speak and make personal statements.

E. The SEC Marketing Officer will work in collaboration with the A.S. Marketing & Events department to promote election events.

F. Students who submit an initiative or referendum for the ballot as well as those who submit a con statement may participate in all election events.

G. Any election event that is approved by the SEC must not favor a candidate, initiative or referendum in any way.

Section VI - Elections Advertising

A. All elections and candidate events must be publicized using all necessary and available mediums including Spartan Daily, posters, online, etc. in accordance with the Elections Calendar/ Timeline.

Section VII - Voter Information Guide (VIG)

A. A Voter Information Guide (VIG) shall be made available both online and in printed form at least 2 weeks prior to the first day of voting and in accordance with the Elections Calendar/ Timeline.

B. Candidate bios/ statements must be submitted by the place, date, and time, and in the format designated by the SEC.
1. Word limits for Bio statements submitted for the VIG are:
   a. A maximum of 250 words for Bio statements. A maximum of 250 words for ballot initiative, referendum, or recall election descriptive text.
   b. A maximum of 250 words each for pro or con statements concerning ballot initiatives, referenda, and recall elections.

C. The selection of statements for publication in the VIG in support of and in opposition to initiatives, referenda, and recalls shall be as follows:

   1. The person or organization sponsoring the initiative or recall shall be entitled to write the VIG statement in support of the measure.

   2. The statement in support of a petition for recall or initiative must be submitted to the SEC with the petition. Statements concerning referenda/initiatives must be submitted in accordance with the approved Elections Calendar/Timeline. If no statement is submitted, none shall be published in the VIG.

   3. Upon submission of a petition for recall or initiative, the SEC will post the recall or initiative language on its office door and the Elections website together with the procedures for submitting an opposition statement.

   4. The first statement submitted to the SEC by a person or registered campus organization in opposition to an initiative or referendum and signed by at least ten students, shall be published in the VIG in opposition to the initiative or referendum.

   5. An officer whose recall is sought shall write the statement to be published in the VIG in opposition to the recall.

   6. The statement in support of a referendum placed on the ballot by the A.S. Board of Directors pursuant to the A.S. Bylaws shall be written by a person(s) selected by the A.S. Board of Directors to do so.

D. Statements submitted by candidates for the VIG will be edited for factual accuracy. If a candidate submits information that is wholly inaccurate and misrepresents A.S. or SJSU, the SEC has authority to revise the statement for factuality. A grievance can be filed against said candidate who may result in the candidate’s invalidation.
E. The SEC shall provide the A.S. Marketing & Events department with all eligible candidate names, statements, referenda, and initiatives to be included in the VIG, along with any other related content no later than 24 hours after the VIG information deadline.

F. The VIG shall be made widely available in print, on the A.S. website and Elections pages, and in any other practical means prior to the election.

Article IV: Campaigns

Section I - Definition

A. Campaigning - refers to organized actions that a candidate undertakes to pursue a particular goal (running for an office or position or promoting a referendum/initiative).

Section II - Examples of Campaign Activities

A. Distributing or displaying posters, flyers, pamphlets or any other form of printed publicity to students on or off campus in order to obtain votes.

B. Making any public statement about candidacy to individuals or groups, such as presenting to student organizations or classes, giving speeches, organizing campaign supporters, requesting faculty or staff support, etc.

C. Posting any type of online content or images related to candidacy on websites, social media pages/platforms, online groups or any other type of online media.

Section III - Campaign Workers

A. All campaign workers must be identified to the SEC through a candidate’s Campaign Party List which grants them the right to work on the campaign of that candidate.

B. All candidates will be held responsible for conduct by their campaign workers related to the candidate’s campaign.

C. Candidates and their campaign workers shall use the highest standards of ethics when campaigning and talking about other candidates.
Section IV - Campaign Regulations

A. Campaign regulations contained herein apply to candidates, referenda, initiatives or any candidate campaign party member or supporter.

B. The posting and distribution of campaign materials on campus, online or in any form shall not begin before a time and date specified by the SEC.

C. The SEC has the authority to actively monitor, approve, and permit or deny the distribution of campaign materials for the purpose of ethical appropriateness and fairness.

D. The distribution of campaign materials must adhere to current University policy. SJSU policy will be distributed to candidates at the Campaign Rules Meetings prior to the start of campaigning.

E. Campaign material sizes may not exceed a size of 18 inches by 24 inches.

F. Persons distributing or posting campaign materials at fraternities, sororities, or residence halls, campus departments or at meetings/events sponsored by campus organizations must comply with applicable rules and regulations of that department or organization.

G. Outdoor campaigning may only be placed in the areas designated by the SEC with the approval of Facilities Development and Operations (FD&O).

H. Candidates may not post more than three (3) campaign materials per campaign area.

I. No campaigning within 75 feet of a polling location will be allowed.

J. Campaign materials may not be posted or carried into any A.S. department, unless only for purposes of utilizing the A.S. Print & Technology Center services.

K. No candidate campaigning shall occur during any A.S. Board or committee meetings, A.S. events, on A.S. social media channels, online groups, or any other method of Board or Committee group messaging.

L. Candidates may not use the A.S. logo on any campaign material.
M. Current A.S. Board of Directors may not use their position within A.S. to support any candidate.

N. No candidate or individual shall interfere with the campaign of another candidate.

O. Campaign materials may not be placed on or in vehicles without consent of the vehicle owners.

P. Each candidate shall remove all campaign materials from the campus within two hours after the announcement of election winners. Failure to do so will result in a disciplinary action taken by the SEC.

Q. Candidates may not use any Associated Students property without purchase such as, but not limited to: phones, computers, copy machines, printers, student databases, and any other supplies, equipment, or information purchased with or acquired by Associated Students fees. Such use is grounds for disciplinary action taken by the SEC. This does not include using the services of the A.S. Print and Technology Center as long as all materials are paid for in full.

R. Candidates may not solicit nor accept any materials, funds, assistance, or endorsement from any SJSU faculty, staff, or administrative personnel. Any candidate found by two-thirds vote of the Students’ Election Commission voting members to have engaged in such behavior is subject to removal from the ballot.

S. If candidates are given permission to speak in front of a class, or in the case of online classes, post a video or statement on Canvas, the candidate must submit an Accountability Form signed by the faculty member.

T. Candidates may not use any form of unethical behavior, bribery, or monetary promises, gifts, or hospitality deemed unacceptable as determined by the SEC.

Section V – Candidate Endorsements

A. Candidates may seek endorsements from recognized student organizations on campus.

B. SJSU Recognized Student Organizations may not endorse a candidate before the start of the campaigning period designated by the SEC.
C. Endorsements must be confirmed by the Recognized Student Organization and the candidate via an endorsement form that is signed and dated by both the candidate and the president or chair of the student organization.

D. Endorsements that are not confirmed by both the student organization and the candidate will not appear.

E. Endorsement forms are due to the SEC and must be submitted by the deadline on the Elections’ Calendar/ Timeline.

F. Endorsements will appear in the online version of the VIG only, unless included in the candidate’s VIG statement and total word count limit.

G. It is highly recommended that organizations only endorse one candidate per position per election calendar.

Section VI - Candidate Expense Sheet

A. It is mandatory for candidates to report all expenses and donations made to their campaign.

B. Receipts for expenses must be submitted to the SEC the day before the last day of voting using the Candidate Expense Sheet provided by the SEC.

C. Candidates cannot exceed more than $1,000 in campaign expenses. Such is grounds for disciplinary action taken by the SEC.

D. Candidate Expense Sheets must be signed by the SEC Ethics Officer.

E. Candidate Expense Sheets will be considered public information.

Article V: Voting and Election Results

Section I - Student Voting Eligibility

A. Each student that pays the Association Fee has equal voting rights in all A.S. Elections.
B. Eligible voters may vote at any of the official polling locations on campus or from a device that has access to as.sjsu.edu or the my.sjsu.edu system.

C. On the election days, voters may vote from any device until the close of voting on the last day of elections at a time determined by the SEC.

Section II - Voting Duration

A. Per Article V, Section I, A of the A.S. Bylaws, elections for the A.S. Board of Directors shall be held during the second full week of April.

B. Election voting shall take place over a span of no less than 48 hours and no more than one full week.

1. Should the SEC determine that accommodating for lost time from an unexpected event be necessary, they can extend election voting for up to one full week. An unexpected event can be, but is not limited to, the following:
   a. Natural Disaster
   b. Campus Shutdown
   c. Faculty Strike
   d. Resignation of the Chief Elections Officer

Section III - Ballots

A. Ballots will be cast online, unless the need for a paper ballot is determined by the SEC.

B. Each ballot should include the names of candidates running for the office and the position they are seeking as well as referendum/initiative titles and pro/con statements.

C. During the construction and activations of the electronic ballot, the order in which candidates appear on the ballot are alphabetically by referenda and initiative title, then by officer title; President, Vice-President, Controller, and alphabetically by remaining positions with the names of candidates listed randomly or alphabetically by last name.

Section IV - Polling Locations

A. There shall be a minimum of three (3) pre-determined physical polling locations in high traffic areas on campus as determined by the SEC.
B. Authorized polling locations may only be administered by the SEC.

C. Unauthorized polling locations are not permitted. An unauthorized polling location includes use of a personal electronic device where candidates may ask students to vote now during any campaigning activity.

D. No person shall be allowed to promote a candidate or initiative/referendum, conduct campaigning activities, or loiter within 75 feet of an authorized predetermined polling location. Only eligible voters casting ballots and designated election officials are allowed at the polling areas.

Section V - Determination of Winners

A. A candidate or initiative/referendum receiving the most votes cast in an election shall be deemed the winner.

B. Should the vote result in a tie, a runoff election shall be held for that office/initiative/referendum no later than ten days after the closing of the previous election ballot.

Section VI - Announcement of Results

A. The Chief Elections Officer and SEC Advisor shall be responsible for compiling and publicizing the election results along with the certification of results assuring the results are true, accurate, and have not been compromised.

B. Results shall be distributed to the Associated Students’ Executive Director.

C. Results shall be announced and made public no later than 6 hours after the close of the Voting Period and remain posted for a minimum of 7 business days.

D. Results shall be posted on the door or in public view at the A.S. House, Student Government Suite, and other A.S. departments.
Article VI: Violations and Grievances

Section I – Violations

A. Definition of Violations

1. Candidate, student, and/or student organization behavior not consistent with the ERM rules, regulations, and procedures as determined by the SEC.

B. Role of the SEC with Violations

1. The SEC governs the enforcement of the ERM rules, regulations, and procedures and enforcing the provisions thereof with appropriate penalties.

2. The SEC has authority to take such reasonable action as is necessary to ensure the conduct of a fair election. Reasonable actions do not include those that change the intent of nor contradict current election regulations as enacted by the A.S. Board of Directors.

3. The SEC may consult with Student Conduct and Ethical Development and/or A.S. legal counsel concerning whether an action to be taken pursuant to this authority is reasonable.

C. Examples of Violations (this list is not exclusive)

1. Minor offenses may include, but are not limited to the following:
   a. Campaigning before the deadline established by the SEC.
   b. Failure to restrict campaign materials to the areas designated by the SEC and/or campaigning within restricted poll locations; the SEC will remove these campaign materials.
   c. Failure to remove campaign materials within the specified deadline.
   d. Failure to submit a Candidate Expense Sheet to the SEC.

2. Major offenses may include, but are not limited to, the following:
   a. Unauthorized polling locations
   b. Unauthorized removal, destruction, tampering, or damage to campaign materials of another candidate/referendum/initiative.
c. Using A.S. materials and/or resources for personal campaigning (with the exception of paid materials from the A.S. Print & Technology Center)
d. Furnishing false information or forgery, alteration, or misuse of information submitted to the SEC.
e. Conduct that discourages, restricts, or prohibits an individual from running for a position of his/her choice.
f. Initiating a complaint in bad faith to the SEC.
g. Conduct that affected the outcome of an election.
h. Failure to comply with the sanctions imposed for minor offenses.
i. Conduct that threatens or endangers the health or safety of another candidate and/or their affiliates, including physical harm, threats, intimidation, harassment.
j. Failure to comply with stipulations aforementioned in the ERM.
k. Grounds upon which student discipline can be based stipulated in the Student Conduct Code (Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations Section 41301).

Section II - Grievance Process

A. Submission of Violations/Complaints

1. Any student may submit a violation/complaint.

2. Each violation/complaint shall be reported to the SEC no later than five (5) working days after the alleged violation was discovered.

3. The last opportunity to submit complaints to the SEC will be 48 hours after the close of voting.

4. Violations/complaints shall contain the following information:
   a. Sections of the A.S. Bylaws and/or ERM that are the subject of the charges,
   b. Factual description of the conduct (e.g., who was involved, date/time/location of the violation), and
   c. Evidence of the conduct.
   d. Review of Violations/Complaints

5. The Ethics Officer is responsible for reviewing the violation/complaint for completion and preparing all documents for the SEC’s review.
6. The Chief Elections Officer shall convene the SEC to review the violation/complaint.

7. This meeting shall be public and all relevant parties invited to attend.

8. Relevant parties will be allowed a maximum of 3 minutes to share their information.
   a. Testimony of relevant witnesses shall be heard at the discretion of the Chief Elections Officer.

9. The SEC will review the submitted violation/complaint and documents and be able to ask questions to parties present.

10. The SEC shall deliberate in a closed session; only voting members of the SEC shall attend.
    a. They will determine, based on a preponderance of the evidence, whether or not the violation/complaint is substantiated.
       i. If it is substantiated, they will also determine whether the violation constitutes a minor or major offense.

11. The vote of the SEC shall follow in open session and shall use a majority vote to determine the outcome.

12. Decisions of the SEC may be appealed to the Election Appeal Board (EAB). See Section III in this Article.

C. Sanctions

1. The SEC shall implement appropriate and reasonable sanctions/outcomes for candidates found to have violated the ERM rules, regulations, and procedures.

2. The SEC may take into consideration the following factors when issuing sanctions:
   a. Severity of the violation
   b. Effect and impact of the violation,
   c. The reasons/intention of the person who violated policy,
   d. The cooperation during the investigation process.
3. Examples of Sanctions
   a. Minor Offense Sanctions may include, but are not limited to the following:
      i. Written reprimand – A written notice to the student to cease and/or correct the behavior
      ii. Discretionary Sanctions – Work assignments, service to the University, other related outcomes intended to discourage a repeat of the misconduct (e.g., letter of apology to be published in the campus media)

   b. Major Offense Sanctions may include, but are not limited to, the following:
      i. Loss of privilege – Denial of specific privileges for a designated period of time (e.g., loss of campaigning privileges)
      ii. Restitution – Compensation for loss, damage, or injury (e.g., monetary or material replacement)
      iii. Disqualification from Candidacy or Office – Removal of candidate from either the election and/or from serving in office
      iv. Referral to Student Conduct and Ethical Development for alleged violations of the Student Conduct Code

4. Discretionary/ Further Sanctions
   a. A candidate who is found responsible for three or more minor offenses may be disqualified from candidacy and removed from the ballot pending a two-thirds vote of the SEC.

   b. A candidate who is found responsible for one major offense may be disqualified from candidacy and removed from the ballot pending a two-thirds vote of the SEC.

5. Egregious Sanctions
   a. If violations are found to have impacted a portion or all of the election, that impact was prejudicial in nature, and as a result, a fair and reasonable selection among candidates or issues was significantly compromised or deemed not possible, the SEC shall submit a recommendation to the Election Appeals Board. The SEC may recommend that all or a portion of the election be re-submitted for a vote in accordance with the applicable provisions of the ERM and A.S. Bylaws.

b. If the violations are sufficiently egregious, deemed intentional, and the student alleged to have violated the ERM rules, regulations, and procedures was the successful candidate, thus elected to an A.S. position, the SEC shall refer the case to the Election Appeals Board. Upon completion of their inquiry, the Election Appeals Board may recommend the A.S. Board of Directors disqualify and remove the student from office.

Section III - Appeal Process

A. The decision of the SEC may be appealed to the Election Appeals Board.

1. Election Appeals Board (EAB)
   a. The composition and duties are assigned in accordance with the A.S. Bylaws (Article IV, Section IX, Letter D).
   b. Meetings of the EAB must follow the California Education Code and other public meeting requirements.

B. Appeal Process

1. A candidate may submit a written appeal to have the outcome of the SEC reviewed.

2. Appeals must be submitted within 48 hours following the SEC decision.

3. Appeals shall contain the following information:
   a. Candidate’s signature.
   b. Date the appeal is submitted.
   c. Copy of the SEC outcome or a written account of the decision issued.
   d. Candidate’s desired outcome.
   e. Criteria for the student’s appeal (must be one of the following):
      i. New information has become available since the investigation.
      ii. Due process rights have been violated.
      iii. Issued sanctions/outcomes were excessive.
C. Review of the Appeal

1. The EAB shall convene no earlier than 24 hours and no later than three working days after the appeal has been submitted to consider the appeal.

2. The EAB Chair shall notify the candidate and the Chief Elections Officer of the date, time, and location of the EAB meeting.

3. The Chief Elections Officer may respond to the appeal in writing before the EAB meeting; the written response shall be provided to the candidate.

D. EAB Meeting

1. The candidate and the Chief Elections Officer may present evidence during the EAB meeting.
   a. Testimony of relevant witnesses shall be heard at the discretion of the EAB Chair.

2. The Robert's Rules of Order will be followed during the EAB meeting. The meeting shall be public or closed at the discretion of the Chair of the EAB.

3. The candidate and the Chief Elections Officer are each permitted, but not required, to make up to a 15-minute presentation.

4. The EAB members may ask questions of the candidate and the Chief Election Officer.

5. Extensions of time may be granted for good cause as determined by the EAB Chair.

E. EAB Decision

1. Deliberations of the EAB shall be held in closed session; only EAB members shall attend.

2. The vote of the EAB on the issues shall follow in open session. The EAB Chair will announce the decision.
3. Decisions of the EAB are final and cannot be appealed further.

4. In a case when the EAB cannot or will not make a decision, the Associate Vice President of Student Affairs or designee will make the final decision.

Article VII: Definitions

- A.S. - Shall mean the Associated Students of San Jose State University, which is a California nonprofit public benefit corporation.

- A.S. Board/Board - Shall mean the corporate Board of Directors of A.S.

- A.S. Bylaws/Bylaws - Shall mean the corporate Bylaws of the Associated Students of San Jose State University.

- A.S. President - Shall mean the current president of A.S.

- Campaign Materials - Shall be defined as any material that promotes the election of candidate or any election referendum/initiative. This includes, but is not limited to signs, badges, posters, tee shirts, flyers, balloons etc.

- Campaign Worker - Shall refer to students who provide an exceptional amount of campaign work on behalf of a candidate. The degree of work that qualifies an individual as a campaign worker shall be under the discretion of the SEC.
